

eAnnadata Welfare & Development India Ltd. Ghazipur- U.P.

"Developed Farmer's - Developed India"

An unprecedented and unique initiative to make proud the country's Annadata

Invitation notice for inclusion in various services operated to make farmers feel proud till year 2047.

- 1. To make the farmers feel proud, under various schemes to fulfil their basic needs, facilities eg. Canteen facility through eAnnadata card and eAnnadata recognition campaign etc. are provided as per the intention of the Ministry of Agricultural Welfare and Development, Government of India Invites proposals for corresponding implementation.
  - a) An entity recognized and authorized by the Government of India can participate in this invitation, which is willing to work in the field of agriculture and farmer's welfare and development.
    - b) Those units (FPO/NGO/Entrepreneur/Company) which have the capacity to set up an office which is well-organized and equipped.
  - c) Adequate resources and space for training, associates and technical team should be available for the upcoming training programs to be held in the future.
  - *Additional subsidy up to 50% will be provided for Hilly regions, North Eastern states and Jammu & Kashmir.
- Special preference will be given to those units which already have experience in running projects under agriculture and farmer welfare and development related schemes.
- 3. Mandatory prerequisites are as follows: (i) Experience in work related to agriculture and farmer welfare (ii) Units which have reach of at least 1000 farmers. (iii) FPO/NGO/Entrepreneur/Company should have the capacity and infrastructure to operate all the schemes and activities smoothly. (iv) The unit should be registered with the Government of India or State Governments. (v) To submit a non-judicial stamp paper affidavit guaranteeing other details that we will complete our work with full devotion, promptness and honesty.
- 4. For details and more information, interested and eligible units can visit the official website of eAnnadata www.eAnnadata.in.
- 5. All proposals will be submitted online on the official website of eAnnadata www.eAnnadata.in those who have already applied in previous years or are interested in the implementation of the scheme can also apply again on the official website of eAnnadata www.eAnnadata.in. Send all the forms and non-judicial affidavits along with the proposals through registered post within 15 working hours. However, please note that the proposals will be scrutinized only on the basis of online proposals received by eAnnadata Welfare and Development India Limited.
  - 6. The application form regarding this should be completely filled and duly signed by the President/Secretary/CEO of the Institute/President/Registrar of the Organization.
  - 7. The proposals will be evaluated on the basis of merit on various parameters given in the prescribed proforma available online.
- 8. No supplementary documents will be considered after receipt of online proposal.
- 9. Incomplete forms will be rejected without any information.
- 10. Additional subsidy (up to 75%) given to the unit (State Partner/District Partner) or eAnnadata Care Center completing the application during "National Farmer Week 17 to 23 December 2023" scheduled by eAnnadata Welfare and Development India Limited. will go.
- 11. For more information and query regarding this, interested units can contact eAnnadata (Toll free) helpline no- 1800-208-5254 on all working days between 10:00 am to 05:00 pm.

